

Husbands: Redeeming Your Marriage

1 Peter 3:1-7 (Part 2)

Introduction: Peter's call for husbands to honor their wives with understanding consideration and deep respect is a call to illustrate the reality of the gospel of Christ by graciously caring for the needs of another, even at great cost, above their own.

A husband honors his wife with understanding consideration...

1. By really listening to the concerns of her heart.
2. By providing for her emotional as well as her physical needs.
3. By partnering with her in caring for and investing in their children.
4. By generously extending God's grace and forgiveness to her.

A husband honors his wife as a fellow heir of God's gift of eternal life...

1. By recognizing her gifts in ministering to others.
2. By taking the lead with her in worship, service and prayer.
3. By praising her privately and publicly as God's greatest gift to him.
